Lisa Baker, Liturgist

Happy are those whose hope is in the LORD,

For God keeps faith with us forever.

Praise God who brings justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

We will praise the One who lifts up all those who bear heavy burdens.

God will reign in mercy and righteousness for all generations.

Let us praise the LORD with our lips and honour God with our lives.

Prayer for Understanding

We pray together: O God, as we turn to listen for your Word, send your Spirit among us.

Open our ears to your truth. Open our minds to your challenge and move our hearts to live out that challenge in the name of Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh. Amen.

Choral Response – Come to the Water

Foley/Schrader

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water.

And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without price.

Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord?

And let all who seek, let them come to the water.

And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without strife.

Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord?

And let all who toil, let them come to the water.

And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord: all who labor, without rest.

How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord?

And let all the poor, let them come to the water,

Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord: bring the children without might.

Easy the load and light: come to the Lord.

Sung Response

refrain of #394 in The Presbyterian Hymnal

There is a balm in Gil-e-ad to make the wound-ed whole;

there is a balm in Gil-e-ad to heal the sin-sick soul.

The Lord's Prayer

p. 16, at the front of The Presbyterian Hymnal

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
